Short biography

CreArtBox is a New York–based chamber music and multimedia ensemble led by flutist Guillermo Laporta and pianist Josefina Urraca, with core members Emilie-Anne Gendron, Matthew Cohen, and Julia Yang. Recognized by The New Yorker as one of its “art and music top picks,” praised by Time Out as “an ensemble devoted to multidisciplinary events,” and described by BroadwayWorld as “wholly authentic, visually and aurally compelling,” the ensemble creates immersive performances that merge classical and contemporary music with original stage design and visual art.
